Cooperstown

Lunch, Cruise & Fenimore Art Museum

Tuesday, July 9, 2024

Cooperstown

Join the Sand Lake Seniors for a delightful day in Cooperstown, NY. We will start with a lovely narrated boat cruise on Otsego Lake on board the Glimmerglass Queen. This narrated 1 hour tour offers a relaxing glimpse of the history and beauty of James Fenimore Cooper's fabled Leatherstocking Tales. Next savor lunch at the Lake Front Restaurant, located right by the boat dock, offering picturesque views. Meal choices are TBA. After lunch we're off to the Fenimore Art Museum; for a self guided tour. It's situated on the pristine shores of legendary Otsego Lake, on property once owned by famous American novelist James Fenimore Cooper. Its beautiful surroundings are as much a draw as the art within. The museum houses one of the country's most comprehensive and exceptional collections of American folk, fine and the renowned Thaw Collection of American Indian Art, representing North America's diverse and rich cultural heritage. The museum is also home to a wide collection of twentieth-century art, nineteenth-century photography, and decorative arts. In addition, a collection of many objects that once belonged to author James Fenimore Cooper and his family is on view. We will depart for home at approximately 4:30pm with an approximate arrival at St. Henry's at 6pm. Non stop each way.
